Warriors

Yes I want to serve my country. I want to be a warrior for my country. So I made the choice and went to the warrior centre to go for it. I had good fighting skills and my motivation was more than good. So when they asked me to join a new experimental task force I didn't have any doubt. It was a top secret task force. They promised that it would only take a short test-fight and after this, I would soon be a full member of the task force. For this test-fight I got a special uniform. I undressed myself in the dressing room and opened up the package with the uniform. That's strange and exciting at the same time: it was a tight latex catsuit with small boots and gloves. It fitted very well. I had to go outside to the open air test facility. The captain was really pleased by seeing me standing in these tight fitting clothes. I was a bit impatient and asked him what to do. He told me that there were some bulb like aliens in the test facility which could move extremely fast in the air and that they would try to get grip on me. Trying to adapt me.

Thinking straight forward as ever I hadn't an interest in being adapted today. I stood there waiting what would happen. All over sudden they appeared, extremely fast flying through the air. What the hell where those things. As out of a reflex I kicked one in front of me to hell. But at the same moment another one ripped my suit in my crotch and went for my vagina and ass. They were fast. One was trying to cover my head and another two went for my hands. I hadn't any time to defend myself. In the moment I tumbled over they covered my hands, head and I was penetrated deeply in my vagina and ass. I was falling on the floor without seeing anything, not able to do anything. They were just trying to fixate me. I almost fainted when tentacles were getting deeper and deeper in my body. It felt horrible as if they were eating me alive. The one which covered my head was crawling downwards over my neck and breasts. The bottom one continued growing so big that he pushed my legs inside his body in upward position where it meet the other bulbs and closed me in a sort of cocoon. I couldn't move my legs any more, nor the rest of my body. Luckily that I was still able to breath trough a sort of hollow tentacle which was pushed directly into my lungs. I got the strange idea to stop fighting against those creatures and what they where trying to do to me. Something in my mind was telling me that I had to join them, to be one of them. I couldn't resist any more. Of course this must be a part of the test, but what a strange test. I had a strange feeling that I was really adapted by these bulbs.

The frightening part was that I liked it more and more. I had to feel my body. I couldn't resist these bulbs. I would fail for the test and was going to be adapted. These bulbs must have noticed my surrender because at ones my body didn't heard any more. Either did my legs. It felt more and more peaceful. I could move my arms and hands again. Starting to realise that I would be rebuild into one of them made me even feel horny. I could move my hands down along my breast which where clearly increased by size and felt like a sort of latex itself. Slimy and extremely sensitive. This felt good. I pushed my hands further down my body and noticed that the adaptation process was in progress. My legs where gone. A light panic came back to me but when I touched my vagina an overwhelming feeling fulfilled my deepest desires. Then all over sudden the bulb opened up and I was lifted out of the bulb by two tentacles. Fresh air!! I took a deep breath happy to be released. I looked at myself and I felt great. All over sudden my arms start shocking, my to redraw themselves into my upper body, my mouth closed itself and was overgrown by a latex substance as well as my head. It felt that my head redraw itself into my torso and I had the strange feeling that there where tentacles growing out of my body. I couldn't see anything any more, but what was I doing here anyway. I felt strong and ready to fight. Yes, I have to fight and adapt other human beings, our enemies. I am a Warrior bulb and that's what I have to do. The next moment I was in the air and sensed a human female body. As fast as I could I flew up to here. Avoided her legs which where trying to hit me and went strait to her crotch which I penetrated fast and deep with my tentacles. I had assistance from other bulbs which took care of here arms, legs and head. It felt great to concur her body. I took her whole body inside me. Yes she will be one of us, a real warrior.
